

Mary Clapp

Mary was born March 6, 1933, in Rockford, Iowa, the daughter of Claire Harold and Wilma (Crabtree) Moon. She received her two-year teaching certificate from Iowa State Teacher's College (UNI) in 1952. On December 27, 1955, she was united in marriage to Neil G. Clapp. From 1952-1957, she taught 3rd and 5th grades in Gruver, Rockford, Mason City and Waterloo, then raised her family, and then was a teacher's associate at Southdale and North Cedar Elementary schools from 1980 until her retirement in 1994.

Mary is survived by her husband, Neil of Cedar Falls; four sons, Bruce N. of Waterloo, David A. (Sheila) of Cairo, NY, Douglas D. of Waterloo and Michael C. (Melissa) of Kensett; two grandsons, Ryan and Dylan of Cairo, NY; two sisters, Beverly Nash of Grimes and Joanne Kutschat of Deer River, MN; and three brothers, William Moon of Grimes, D. Keith Moon of Johnston and Jack Moon of Charles City.

Mary died Monday, May 26, 2003, at Allen Memorial Hospital in Waterloo. She was preceded in death by her parents; sister, Geraldine Magilton and grandson, Stephen.