

Mary Clare Hartman

March 13, 1953 - February 21, 2021

Mary Clare Hartman, 67, of Dysart, Iowa, died February 21, 2021 at her home in Dysart.

She was born March 13, 1950, in White Bear Lake, MN, the daughter of John and Ruth Elger Hartman. She married Stehan King October 27, 2002 in Dysart. She received at her Bachelor of Arts degree in Art History from the University of Northern Iowa and also her LPN degree from Hawkeye Community College. Mary was employed as a nurse at MercyOne-Waterloo, retiring in 2018.

Survived by her husband, Steve of Dysart; son, Sam (Laura) Newton of Woodbury, MN, their children Jack, Mari, and Noel; two step-sons, David (Jennifer) King of Cedar Falls, their children, Tori and Haylee and Larry (Grace) Newton, their children McKenzie and Tyler; step-daughter, Heather Hall of LaPorte City and her children, Sofia and Alex, sister, Jackie (Raul) Barret of MN; and two brothers, Don and John Hartman. Preceded in death by her daughter, Eloise C. "Elly" Newton and sister, Jayne Yoss.

There will be no services. Inurnment at Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Waterloo. Memorial contributions may be directed to the family.

Cemetery Details

Mt. Olivet Cemetery

4th and San Marnan
Waterloo, IA 50701

Events

Details are pending.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ 1 file added to the album Memories Album

jacque Bakker - February 28, 2021 at 03:56 PM

TH

“ Our sympathies to Mary's family. Mary was a great neighbor on Tremont street in Cedar Falls. It was nice to watch Sam and Elly grow up! It was also nice to have a nurse in the neighborhood also! Mary was a very outgoing woman who enjoyed life. Mary will be at Peace when she knows all of you are at Peace.

*Tom & Cathy Hagarty
Cedar Falls*

Tom Hagarty - February 26, 2021 at 11:12 AM

JH

“ 1 file added to the album Memories Album

john hartman - February 22, 2021 at 05:08 PM