“ Mike, I was shocked to read the obituary, I talked to someone at DB&T and she told me what happened. I am so deeply sorry, Mary was just such a nice person, like you. I always enjoyed visiting with you both. Steve enjoyed talking to both of you about his hometown of Waterloo also. If you are in Dubuque again, we would love to see you! Our thoughts are with you and your family! Vicki Bechen and Steve Bracken

“ Ken and I received the phone call on Friday regarding Mary's passing. We are deeply saddened by this shocking news. You and your family will remain in our thoughts and prayers. We have missed you since your move from the neighborhood to Minnesota. Mary will be always remembered for her friendliness and the kind welcome you both offered when we moved to King Arthur Court. May our Lord Jesus Christ be with you and your family at this painful time. We pray that you will draw nearer to Him as you grieve and until you are reunited with Mary in Heaven.
