“ My deepest heartfelt sympathies and condolences to Mary's family and friends. She was as an awesome person filled with, love, compassion ,joy and faith. I will always remember her quiet laughs and smiles. She was a mentor to me during my childhood and adult years. I remember her being so excited when the cartoons came on during our Saturday matinee visits to the movie theaters. She was a joy to be around for a kid seven years younger than her. She was loved by many and we all will carry her love and memories closely with us. She will receive her rewards in Heaven.
