“ I knew Maxine as a child,.after her Mom passed away, i took care of her until her Dad came home from work. As she got older she made friends and went to their homes to play until Dad came home from work. I can see that Maxine fulfilled her life with all the things she missed in life. I was in high school and lost track of her but I can see she made out very well. Her husband and family can be very proud of her., she missed so much as a child. Isent her Berthday and Christmas cards but never saw her again. Gloria Perkins
