“ Years ago my son and I lived next door to Maxine for about 10 years. We had garage sales together, went out to eat a few times, shared meals and desserts from our kitchens, and swapped recipes. Mostly, I have fond memories of long conversations that we'd have while relaxing in lawn chairs on warm summer evenings. Maxine's greatest love was her family and she shared many stories with me, smiling as she talked about each of you. I'm blessed to have known Maxine.

With deepest sympathy for your loss.
