

Merlin Menken

August 14, 1948 - August 1, 2022

Merlin Duane Menken, 73, of Dike, Iowa died Monday, August 1, 2022, at Mercy One – Waterloo.

Merl was born August 14, 1948, in Hampton, Iowa, the son of Herman and Jennie Menken. He went to Parkersburg High School and resided in Dike, IA his entire adult life. On March 18, 1967, he was united in marriage to Carol A. Menken at Dike United Methodist Church.

Merl retired from Dike New Hartford Schools in 2014, where he served as the superintendent of transportation for 30 years. Prior to his employment at Dike New Hartford Schools, he owned and operated Menken's '66 station in Dike, providing the community with trusted mechanical repairs, towing, and tank wagon fuel services.

Merl loved farming, fishing, and spending time with his family. He could frequently be found farming, whether it was for himself or helping a friend. His favorite memories were spent fishing up North on Lake Winnie with his family, a fishing rod, and his red solo cup.

“ I've known Merl for many years, working with him in the school transportation industry here in Iowa. He was a great friend and always had the safety of the students on his buses as his top priority. He will definitely be missed! Sending prayers to his family.

I went to school at D-NH, so my memories come from riding the bus with Merl behind the wheel. My thoughts and prayers are going to his family at this time.
