“ I was Mildred and Stan's neighbor and friend of Dick Deal. We had a great neighborhood and Mildred was always a welcoming person. My brother and I remember going water skiing with Stan on his boat in the Cedar River. He and Mildred and Gramma and Grandpa Tay are well remembered. May the Lord bless the family always...

“ I was Mildred's Cedar Valley Hospice Volunteer. I visited her once a week for several months. I enjoyed our visits. I remember one day in particular after we had visited for about an hour, I said I needed to go but that we had had a good visit. She said that yes we did, in fact we could have visited all morning! I am sorry I could not come to the visitation or funeral to meet her family, but I had out of town and out of state company. I have been keeping Mildred and her family in prayer.

“ So Sorry to hear about Mildred. She truly was a very special lady. I met Mildred in the early 1990s when I rented from her. I so appreciated our little talks and doing "art" on occasion. She was like an adopted grandma to me. In fact she was an honorary grandparent at my wedding. I regret that the last time I saw her was several years ago and thought maybe she had moved to be with her family. To her granddaughters, I want you to know that your grandma talked of you often and was very proud of you. We will be praying for comfort for your family.

*Hello Tracey,
Thank you for the kind words about my grandmother. I remember her talking about you often. She was so flattered and honored to be your grandmother for your wedding. She had a picture of your family in her room for a long time. I am sure she enjoyed doing art with you. She was quite the artist! I did not inherit that gene :)
God bless you and your family*
