

Mina Watson

Mina Mae Watson, 81, of Mission, Texas, Formerly of Parkersburg, died Thursday, September 9, 2004, at Mission Hospital. She was born May 5, 1923, in Parkersburg, Iowa, the daughter of Charles and Grace (Kettwig) Cramer. Mina Mae grew up in Parkersburg and graduated from Parkersburg High School in 1941. She was united in marriage to Steven Watson on July 29, 1956, in California, where the couple made their home prior to moving to Texas.

Mina Mae is survived by her husband of Mission; a sister, Marjorie M. (Barclay) Sloan of Parkersburg; and three nieces. Preceding her in death were her parents, and a son in infancy, Stevan Charles Watson.

Private committal services occurred Wednesday, September 15, 2004, in the Oak Hill Cemetery in Parkersburg, with The Rev. Ron Bartlett, pastor of the Congregational Church, officiating. Richardson Funeral Home in Cedar Falls was in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Vickie Woods lit a candle in memory of Mina Watson

vickie woods - July 24, 2020 at 09:22 AM