“ *”If a man or woman should die, can they live again?
Hear the promise God has made:
He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand ”(Job 14:13-15)*

“ Times of first meeting you, times of sitting on your kitchen as you told of days of you growing up, of days gone by with family and friends. Grandma I loved to listen to you and laugh with you! Your eyes would still have some twinkle as though you were telling the biggest secret ! Thank you for being so sweet and kind to me! You will be missed and are loved.

“ I remember when she bought me a pair of winter boots. I worked it off by doing dishes a quarter a week. I quit and still owe her a quarter. I must have been 12 yrs old. Then I thought I would mop the kitchen floor to surprise her. Guess what? When I was all done there were black swirls all over the floor!! I thought I did well. ha ha.

“ Grandma, thank you so much for all the Sunday afternoons that you took me home with you. Eating Kentucky Fried Chicken, learning how to crochet; those are all memories that I will treasure forever. You gave me the greatest gift of all...time with you! Darla
