

Nathan Sinclair

March 6, 2008

Nathan L. Sinclair (1952-2008)

CEDAR FALLS- Nathan L. Sinclair, 56, of San Francisco, formerly of Cedar Falls, died Thursday, March 6, 2008, at University of California at San Francisco Hospital of cancer.

He was born Jan. 22, 1952, in Cedar Rapids, son of Donald J. and Margauret (Loveland) Sinclair.

He attended Luther College in Decorah, and received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in English from the University of Iowa. He later received his Masters Degree from the University of California at San Francisco, where he was employed as a program assistant with the Cardiovascular Research Institute. At the time of his death, he had been working with the library at the university, researching the dangers and effects of smoking and second-hand smoke.

He is survived by his mother of Cedar Falls; two brothers, Rod Sinclair of Cedar Falls and Edward Sinclair of Appleton, WI; a sister, Cora Sinclair of Omaha, NE; and a nephew, Samuel Sinclair, also of Appleton.

Preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Lester and Rosabelle Loveland; and his father.

Memorial services are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Richardson Funeral Home, with burial in Oakland Cemetery, Janesville. There will be no public visitation. His body has been cremated.

Memorials may be directed to the American Cancer Society or the American Heart Association.

Tribute Wall

“ I was deeply saddened to learn of Nathan's passing, and extend my sympathies to his mother, sister and brothers. Nathan was a very special person in my life when we attended junior high and high school together in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. We resumed our friendship in the 1990's when we discovered that we both lived on the West Coast in California. I will never forget his wit, love of the absurd, drama, music and poetry, and his penetrating blue eyes. I will miss him. -- Rhonda

April 08, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ We were good friends in junior high in Cedar Rapids and stayed in touch when the family moved to the Clear Lake area. We renewed the friendship when we both attended Luther, but lost touch when I left after our freshman year. I've thought of him often. I will always remember his beautiful voice, great sense of humor, intellect and kindness. I extend my sympathy to all family and friends. Deb (Anderson) Peddycoart

April 04, 2008 at 12:00 AM