“ While I only knew Neysa briefly during her healing journey I will never forget the warmth and the love in her eyes. I felt her as a Beautiful soul full of compassion and love. It was my honor to have connected with Neysa, a woman of great strength beauty and grace. Unfortunately I will not be able to attend the celebration of life but know that I am sending love and prayers to Neysa's family. Peace be with you. Collette

“ How I love Neysa and cherish the love and warmth she shared with not only me and my family, but the love and generous heart she had for all those around her. Neysa welcomed me into her home, shared her wisdom with me as I struggled as a young Mom. She shared her perspectives in child rearing. She was generous and loving to my children. I will always be grateful for her love of Jesus Christ and her devotion to Him. We will miss Neysa. Our love and prayers are with her wonderful family.

“ We were so fortunate to become friends with Neysa as members of our CHPC choir. She was extraordinary in many ways, and what we most remember is her kindness. Thank you Neysa and god bless you. Santha & Jim “ Neysa wasn't just an arts patron, she was part of our theatre family. She was always interested and engaging in theatre talk and asking about background and history of plays. She wanted to hear stories of my time in NYC an managing an off-Broadway theatre. She ground it fascinating and we had many long conversations about theatre. She attended every play she could at the Oster Regent Theatre until she no longer could. She was and absolutely fantastic person and was hugged at every single visit!

“ A beautiful woman who moved with grace, I will always remember Neysa's keen intellect and her warm smile. She lovingly hosted a bridal shower for me over 50 years ago - a kind and generous act. My love to Leslie, Lynn and Sarah and all the grandchildren.

Neysa: You will truly missed by all who knew you. I always liked working for her, she ask about my family and wanted to no how we were doing. She would always push me with my landscaping skills and it made me better. Just saw her at physical therapy when I was doing mine, I was hoping to talk to her later. She was one of the kindest and caring people I have worked for, I will miss her. Sorry for the families loss, to classmates Sara and John, and their family. She was a special Lady!

I met dear Neysa when Lynn and I were college roommates at BYU back in 1979-1981. Whenever she would visit, she embraced me and just radiated love. She would even cook liver and onions for Lynn and me because she knew we were of the few on earth who liked it!! She personally helped me get through nursing school for which I will forever be thankful. And she sent me a Christmas card literally every single year since way back then. She was pure love. My love and heartfelt sympathy to Lynn, Leslie, and Sarah and their families. Eileen Gelm Fawcett
