“ Dear Gale, I am so sorry for you in the loss of Pat. It just doesn't seem possible yet we knew she had cancer but thought it was in remission. We just found out about her passing this evening 12/21. Tim had talked to David and told him. Shelley just called us and told us. We don't get the Courier any more so don't get obits. Please be assured that we are praying for you and your family and will continue to pray for you in the days and months to come. Perhaps we can get together for lunch or something soon. I would like to do that, and we can talk. You are a really dear friend, Gale, and I feel so sad for you and your family. I was in the hospital Sunday and Monday with a bad episode of vertigo. I feel back to normal now, which I am very thankful for, but have to take it easy.

We have a loving God, Gale, who cares for us deeply. He is the only one who can give us strength at a time like this. I would love to get together and talk. We send you all of our love my friend. We love you and your family sincerely.

“ Gale, Jill, Anne. As Jolene and I have prayed for Pat since hearing of her illness, it was only a few months ago that we got to meet her face to face and it was a blessing to us. With life comes many trials and its great to know Pat had Christ on her side and she was a witness to many thru her trial. For believers, death is not the end but the beginning. As the heart ache and sadness ease, be thankful for one of GODS gifts that death can't take away and that's the precious memories. They get sweeter and sweeter as time goes by.

“ I lived across the street from Pat while we were growing up in Grundy Center and we would sometimes walk to school or sometimes her parents would take us. I spent many wonderful hours at her house during those years. She was a wonderful caring friend. Her dog Mittie would always accompany us and Mittie would even come to our house and stand by our door and we would let him come inside for awhile and then we would take Mittie home. My condolences to her husband, her children and Millie. I know you have many cherished memories thru the years and I know that as time goes on they will be precious reminders.
