“ So sorry to hear about Pat. Her and I went to school together and I have known her for years. She was a loving mother, very soft spoken and devoted to her family. I will miss her but I can remember the school days and how her and I were the wall flowers but we didn't care. I know Pat is with the Lord right now and someday I will see her again.

“ Pat was the sweetest woman and always had her children first in her heart! This loving woman was always so kind and encouraging to me! I have no doubt that she is being held in the arms of Jesus this very moment! Love you all, Hansen family!!
