“ SO SORRY TO HEAR OF ANOTHER GREAT LOSS IN YOUR FAMILY IN SUCH A SHORT PERIOD OF TIME...MY THOUGHTS AND SYMPATHY ARE WITH YOU..

“ Please accept our deepest sympathy. Take comfort in knowing that our tears does not escape our loving heavenly Father notice. At Revelation 21:4, 'And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away".

“ Gramma Pat (Jill called her G-Money) and I got to know each other pretty well over the years. My favorite memory of her was when we all went to Las Vegas for Christmas in 2011. Jill and I shared a room with her. I woke up one morning after a long night partying with Julie, Jay and Jill. I opened my eyes and she was sitting there on the edge of her bed and said, "We going to breakfast?" It was 7am. I said sure grandma. I couldn't get Jill or Julie to go because they were still recovering so I was the one to take her. All of sudden I hear, "Melissa come in here and help me pluck my eyebrows." Oh grandma always making me laugh. So I did and then, still recovering myself, got dressed and took her down to the casino restaurant and had breakfast. In the end we had an amazing breakfast together with great conversation and laughter just like girlfriends. We got to know each other better and I couldn't have asked for a morning. I had a great date.
