

Peggy Gosden

Peggy was born September 15, 1927, in Independence, Iowa, the daughter of Donald Neville and Obera Ellyn (Proudy) Hall. She graduated from Allen School of Nursing in 1949 with RN degree. On September 17, 1949, she was united in marriage to Byron Alfred Gosden in Black Hawk County, IA. He died June 20, 1971. She was employed at Sartori Memorial Hospital in Cedar Falls as a Registered Nurse for 18 years, retiring 1990.

Peggy is survived by one son, Steven Carl (Brenda) Gosden of Cedar Rapids; one daughter, Kathy Ellyn (Randy) Rogers of Cedar Falls; five grandchildren, Samuel Rogers of Janesville, Paul Rogers of Cedar Falls, Bryanna Gosden of Cedar Rapids, and Ben and Abby Gosden, both of Georgia; great grandson, Zachary Rogers of Janesville; one brother, Truman E. (Juanita) Hall of Waterloo and one sister, Mary E. (James) Willingham of Locust Grove, IL. Peggy died Thursday, May 8, 2003, at the Cedar Valley Hospice Home in Waterloo of cancer. She was preceded in death by her parent and two brothers, Eugene and David Hall.