“ Best father anyone could ever hope to have. Taught me not only to be a man but what that means. Favorite times of mine where working on cars together not always fun but just having him there with me I wouldn't trade it for the world. If you knew him you knew him as kind, caring, hardworking, FUNNY, and honest. Most important thing in the world to him were not possessions but family and the love he had for them. My Mom and Dad have been married 46 years but they talk, smile, laugh and love as they were still newlyweds. I will miss you Dad more then I could ever express myself on here I love you always.
