“ Mike and I have a lifetime of memories with Rita and Ray (Mike is Rita's youngest brother. Many times when we visited Waterloo we would stay with Rita and Ray and they were such gracious hosts to us and our children. I am beyond sad that we can not make the funeral but know our thoughts and hearts are with you at this time. He lived a full and happy life and it was a pleasure that we got to know him.

“ Dear family,
My sincere sympathy to you at this time of Ray's death. Ray and his late wife Rita, we're good friends. I pray that the perhaps thousands of rosaries which Ray crafted with such love in honor of the Blessed Mother now through her intercession with her Divine Son find a place of eternal rest in their love. My prayers for Ray and all of you.
