“ Bob was a wonderful friend to me, especially in elementary school. H'd invite me out to the farm and I'd ride my bike out there from 18th and College. We would shoot our BB guns at the sparrows (never hit any), climb and jump in the hay mow trying to catch pigeons, bring Kool-Aid out to his Dad baling hay (his Dad wanted water, but smiled anyway). Bob even talked me into lassoing a pig with my new lariat. Once we lassoed it, we tried to get on its back and ride it. I can still hear the squealing! Bob knew how to do just about anything.

Bob's mother mothered us in many ways. She would fix us lunch and see how we were doing, and Bob's sister was always nice to me. My father and I would hunt pheasants on his farm.

At my father' interment ceremony in Cedar Falls ten years ago, Bob was there, even though I hadn't seen him for many years. I was deeply moved by this act of friendship.

Thank you, Bob. You were a great friend and a good man. Thank you for your service to our great country.

“ *Dear Family,
We cannot reduce your grief, but we can share it. We remember a "good guy" who helped whoever and whenever he could. Paulette remembers Bob as Marlys' little brother. As kids, Marlys and Bob were close and Paulette does not remember arguments between them. Life is a blend of love and loss, but love is always stronger.
