“ Bob
I'm glad I thanked you for being my role model on how to be a great father-in-law. I'm sorry I couldn't tell you that you were also my role model as a husband and father. Since the fall and diagnosis, you also became my newest hero never a whimper or woe is me. You helped me realize that I will never regret what I do for others but will regret what I do to, and what I don't do for others, that I can finish my life better than I started it. If someday I can reach role model status, I'll want those I leave behind to say "Thank you Robert Cecil Way"

“ Thoughts and prayers to all the family. Meeting you in 1959 , seeing your family growing up, and keeping in touch all these years even while you were in Missouri. Know that you will be in my thoughts. Love Bernice and my family.

Bob was so kind and quickly embraced me into our bible study group. At one of our first bible studies, he softly directed me to the book of the Bible we were studying. I immediately felt comfortable and developed wonderful friendships with he and Dee. God gave him the kindness and the knowledge to speak the right words at the right time. It is with joyful sorrow to miss him. Sue

I am forever grateful to God for putting everything in place where we could spend a week last September with you and Mom in Texas. We had fun, we ate too much and just enjoyed each other. "Spot" will live on forever as one of my happy memories. Love you Dad and will miss you everyday from now until we see each other again. - Red
