

Ron Risting

June 12, 1935 - November 19, 2024

Roland Gene Risting (Ron), aged 89, passed away on November 19, 2024, in Waterloo, IA. Born on June 12, 1935, Ron leaves behind a legacy marked by devotion to his family and a distinguished career.

Ron graduated top of his class from Whitten High School and soon after embarked on a career that would define his professional life. He was the founding owner of Waterloo Construction, renowned for his leadership and strong work ethic, which earned him great respect in the construction industry.

In retirement, Ron and Linda enjoyed extensive travels, visiting all 50 states, and later spent 26 cherished winters in Florida. Ron was an esteemed craftsman, known for his diverse woodworking skills and was a passionate, accomplished golfer.

Surviving Ron are his wife, Linda Risting; children, Steve Risting (Carol), Shary Stadler (Marc), Lori Risting-Clark (Ken), Brad Blough (Dena), and Adam Blough; grandchildren, Corey Knuppel (Jessica), Jonathan Risting, Jennifer Risting (Chris Lesh), Elizabeth Longcor (Mitch), Cole Clark (Hannah), Connor Blough, and Addison Blough; great-grandchildren, Kennedy, Collins and Raegan Knuppel, Luke and William Henry Lesh; and sister, Helen Baker (Merv).

Ron was preceded in death by brother, Don Risting; and granddaughter, Jordyn Clark.

Ron's life was one of active engagement, marked by a passion for creation and a love for his family. His presence will be profoundly missed by all who knew him.

A Celebration of Life will occur at a later date.

“ So sorry to hear about Ron's passing. My sympathy goes out to the Risting family. Many memories hanging out with Lori in the house on Cardinal Dr. Snowmobiling with Ron pulling Lori and I in a cart behind the snowmobile! Great fun! May your fond memories help you through this time of grievance.
