

Rosabelle Praglin

December 13, 1927 - June 8, 2020

Rosabelle (Rose) Praglin of Waterloo died on June 8th at Friendship Village in Waterloo. Rose was born December 13, 1927, in Worcester, MA, daughter of Morris Saul and Cora (Krock) Wolfson. She married Julius Praglin on June 12, 1949. She was an alumna of Classical High School, Worcester; Case Western Reserve University (B.S.); and the University of Connecticut (M.A.), earning her university degrees while raising three daughters. She taught in Ohio, MA and CT. Rose is predeceased by her parents and husband. She is survived by three daughters and their husbands, Judith (Rick) Robbins of Falmouth, MA; Laura Praglin (Kenneth Atkinson) of Cedar Falls; and Martha (Michael) Smith of Durham, CT; grandchildren, Kelly, Kaitlyn, and Scott; and her devoted brother and sister-in-law, Jack and Marcia Wolfson of Worcester, MA. Services will be private at the Massachusetts National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to: Friendship Village, Waterloo; University of Northern Iowa Foundation, Cedar Falls, for minority student social work scholarships; Cedar Valley Hospice, Waterloo; or the donor's choice.

“Rose and Julius joined Laura and Ken and several others for Thanksgiving dinner at my home in Cedar Falls years ago. It was such a pleasure to get to know them, to listen to the memories they shared, to enjoy turkey and companionship with them. My heart goes out to Laura and the rest of the family.
