“ I am sorry for your loss. I do not remember Rosalie really well. We had a lot of classmates. She did have a great smile. Something I always look at first in a person. Her classmate Nancy Crawford Mead.

“ Rosie's family,
I was a childhood friend/classmate of Rosie's. She always had a smile, didn't she? I always appreciated her warmth and friendliness. I know that all of you will miss her. I am truly thankful that her suffering has ended. It's always difficult to see someone you love suffer. We do pray God's peace and blessings for all of you, especially, you, Larry, her faithful husband!!
