“ Dearest Mom.... My heart is so sad... but I know you would NOT want any of us kids sad.

You enjoyed life so much.. always with a POSITIVE and upbeat attitude. You loved laughter, happiness, sharing... whether through a prank, a funny quote or making an afghan for someone special in your life! You also loved your family and so many friends!

You'll be missed.. so very much, but as with Dad... I will always try to remember you only with a SMILE on my face.

Love you ... forever.... Sue & Jack, too!

“ I will miss Aunt Rosie dearly. She has always been a constant in my life. It helps to know she was at peace with what life dealt her and she was not afraid. Always so happy and positive, a call from her was a real treat. She was one in a million. Until we meet again. Mom and all of us wish we could be there, but probably not a great idea at this time.

Love and condolences to my Cousins and their families- Suz “ *Sending our sympathies to the family of Rosie. I and my mom always thought highly of her. I always enjoyed seeing her, she was such a sweet lady. Though it's been many years we still think of the good times spent, on old 4th ave., with all the Christiansen family, and extended family. So sorry for your loss. Craig and Sue Cordes.
