“ I remember her sewing room just off their living room and her taking in alterations. Her swing on the front porch and her riding on the back of her husband's motorcycle. She loved having her family home and was a great cook.

“ Tom (and sibilgs) - You may not remember me, but Tom and I attended St. Mary's and Columbus same years and our moms quilted together at St. Mary's. There were may fond memories via St. Mary's Church and my mom often spoke of your mom. They enjoyed each others company along with Shiley Sizer and others. I remember your mother as beind very kind and always a warm smile.

My thoughts are with you all and Mass will be offered at the Basilica of St. Mary (my home parish here in Minneapolis). May she rest in peace and hopefully quilt in heaven with my mother and the other ladies from St. Mary.
