“ Just in the last few months I've had the great pleasure to get to know Royce, this is so unexpected. And it was only because Royce was looking for new employment. He was so happy to let us know that he had found a new position, much better than the few part-time hours that he had been working.

From his friends at Cedar Valley Iowa Works: Royce is in our hearts, he was a loving, peaceful, and gentle man. prayers for Royce, family, and friends.

“ Royce was a classmate at Logan Jr. High and East High. He was a quiet sort but a super guy. I remember a teacher reading one of his poems in class...no one thought it had been Royce's. He will be missed in the Halls of Troy!!!!

“ When I returned to the Iowa area in 2005 I ran into Royce and was glad to greet a former school mate (grade school, junior high and high school). There is a term consistent quality and when it comes to character Royce was of consistent quality. I learned just a few days ago from my sister that he had passed several weeks ago. I was saddened to hear the news but glad I had met him during my journey in this kingdom that comes on earth. The word of God says all things were made for God's pleasure and when I think of Royce's consistent quality character I know he pleased God. This does not mean he was perfect but certainly was of pleasing character.
