“ I don't want to believe it! She has been my mentor for the past 18 years. She is in my phone as "My life saver". The things she has helped me through are endless. I will forever miss her and love her. She wasn't just my mentor she was my best friend. My thoughts and prayers are with her family! Thinking of you all as you lost a great woman. I am so sorry for your loss 😞

“ I honestly am not sure how to move on without you Grandma 💜 you were apart of so much! You were so proud of me, you were the best listener and you always got me through the hard times and were always there to share the best ones! There is so much more I thought I was going to be able to share with you but although you're not here physically I know you're always going to be there in spirit. There just are no words to explain the pain and emptiness I have without you! Thank you so much for the time and memories we created! I promise to shine bright and crush all my goals!

“ I met Sandie at work in 1982, and have remained friends/sisters all these years. I don't know if there are words that can express that absolute pain I have in my heart and soul for her passing. When Kerissa called me Tuesday morning and told me Sandie was gone, I felt like someone had punched me in my stomach. We use to talk on the phone for hours when I could get ahold of her, but it didn't matter how long between the last time we spoke we were right back laughing again. Sandie was one of a kind if she liked you there wasn't anything she wouldn't do for you, but if you got on her bad side you also knew it. God doesn't make people like Sandie anymore. I know that she's saving a seat for me, and she'll be drinking her Diet Coke and having my ice tea waiting. So I won't say good bye, I'll just say I love you Sandie, and will see you in the near future.
