

Sharon Mobley

Sharon was born January 26, 1942, in Hampton, Iowa, the daughter of Roy Simerson and Blanch Fleshner. She married George Onken Jr. on August 11, 1958, in Cedar Rapids, IA. They later divorced. She met Raymond H. Mobley and they were united in marriage on March 9, 1963, in Austin, MN. Sharon and her husband owned and operated Ray's Skelly in New Hartford until closing. She then opened Sharon's Corner Caf? and operated it for several years. Sharon and Ray owned and operated Country Side Greenhouse in New Hartford to the present. She was a member of the New Hartford Kids Club, New Hartford Rebeccas, New Hartford Women's Club and New Hartford Beaver Creek Days.

Survivors include her husband; a sister, Delores (Harley) Kilby; three sons and a daughter, Rickey D. Onken of New Hartford, John D (Deborah) Onken of New Hartford, Jana R. (Jeff Kraft) Bleeker of Waverly and Ernest H. (Kendra) Mobley of New Hartford; thirteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Sharon died Wednesday, May 28, 2003, at Sartori Memorial Hospital in Cedar Falls. She was preceded in death by her parents and grandparents.