“ I was a classmate of Shelia when she was at Janesville. One thing I remember about her is she had beautifully, feathered hair and a beautiful laugh. She was quiet at times but very friendly to everyone. I pray for her family in this difficult time. She was a beautiful person.

“ Troy, I knew you as a young boy; Jacy, your Grandma Barb used to bring you to visit my mother, Alma Bunnell. And now you are going through a time of grief. I am praying that God will give you and the rest of your family the comfort and strength that He alone can give. “Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you.” (1 Peter 5:7)
