

Shirley Tarrence

February 3, 1926 - November 17, 2023

Shirley L. Tarrence, 97, formerly of Cedar Falls, IA, died on Friday, November 17, 2023, at Froedtert Hospital in Milwaukee, WI.

Shirley was born on February 3, 1926, in Marshalltown, IA.; the daughter of Roscoe and Josephine (Divis) Boyer. She graduated from Marshalltown High School and married O. Allen "Al" Tarrence on June 21, 1946, also from Marshalltown. As a homemaker, she was a devoted mother for her entire life. Shirley loved all sports; often walking to see Scot play baseball. Her main love, however, was basketball and she became an avid Milwaukee Bucks fan, while in Wisconsin, and was delighted to see them win a Championship.

Shirley is survived by her daughter, Cathy Wershay and her son, Scot Tarrence both of New Berlin, WI. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Kimberly (Ryan) Zehner of Paris, WI and Bradley Tarrence of Gilbert, AZ. and nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 67 years, her parents and her siblings, Frank Boyer, Jeanette (Frank) Hynek, Edward "Spec" (Virginia) Boyer, and Wilma (Ed) Rainey. Also preceding her were her nieces Marilyn (Hynek) Weber, Debbie Bachman and her nephews, Ross Boyer and Bruce Devick.

“ Scot, Cathy & families: We wish to extend our sympathies on the passing of Shirley. She was a wonderful person. We think of both Al & Shirley whenever we go up Cedar Heights Drive. Both of your parents were supportive of us & wanted to know how we and our families were doing thru the years. Shirley also filled us in on how you were doing. Father Craig has meetings tomorrow -so he is unable to attend. I am under the weather - but we both will be at the service in spirit. Love to you all. Dave & RaeMarie Schlichte and Fr Craig Steimel.
