“ Stephanie was and kind and beautiful soul. She wanted the best for anyone and everyone. She didn't always have the easiest of times in life, but even then her kindness and beauty showed through. Truly a soul that we lost tragically and FAR too soon. Rest in peace with those you loved that went before you. God speed sweet girl!

“ Stephanie was 3 grades behind me at Dunkerton high school she was the Prettiest, sweetest girl I could have ever call a friend. We chatted on messenger over the yrs and share our troubles. I'll share I was at the end of my rope looking for my final Farwell many times over the past many yrs. And Steph was always there to listen. (Pretty good therapist) Never had the nerve to ask her out though & I regret that!! Safe to say I loved Stephanie. I always felt since a teenager that girls didn't come any sweeter and beautiful. Rest in peace my dear friend, don't worry the person or persons responsible will be brought to justice.. I truly believe we'll meet again and I'll have more courage to express my feelings. SORRY if I embarrassed anyone but it kept me crying
