“ I remember Steve, as a 5th grader. He loved my kitty, Muffy, that I would bring to school. I got a very big chuckle because I wasn't married at the time and he definitely thought the class needed to find a husband for me!!!! His words <3 Sending prayers for all of you.

“ Sending my sincerest sympathies to you and your family. I used to work with you, Julie, at Principal. We were desk buddies for quite a while!
I remember you talking about his children so fondly!
Sending thoughts and prayers from Arkansas!

“ As I close my eyes I can hear Stephen with his happy, excited laugh. Stephen would want to share about his job, moving to a new apartment or something he was going to do or had done. With telling about anything he'd have excitement in his voice with a big laugh. Then I was at Sturgis Falls with Julie and her family, waiting for the parade to start. Here comes Stephen with Travis in Stephen's car driving by us. Both had a big smile, talking with each other as they drove by. Up at Grandma Butler's he would be happy to help her. First to volunteer to help her. At the campground here goes Stephen and Travis walking and having a good chat. Rest in peace Stephen!
