“ I met Steve in 7th grade and spent most of our junior high years in the gym playing basketball. Roger, Patty and the entire family were always so kind. Steve was such a kind man. We used to call him Silky Syndergaard because of his sweet jump shot. I never got to meet you Holden but when I saw your dad he would glow when he talked about you. John, Sue and Karen. I am sorry for your loss. I know how much you guys loved him. You're in the Drivers seat now my friend! Love ya always, Doug
