

Tami Brown

October 5, 2005

Tamara (Tami) Brown, passed away peacefully in her sleep on October 5, 2005. Born and raised in Waterloo/Cedar Falls, Iowa on February 3, 1948, she came to southern California in the late 1960's. She spent 20 years in the banking industry in the Covina area and was an active member of Soroptimists of Covina and the Chamber of Commerce. In 1988 she was instrumental in starting the Lifesavers Foundation to assist leukemia patients in their search for matching donors. Assisting leukemia patients became her passion and she gave her all to that purpose. She touched many people and saved many lives in her journey. She carried the same passion into her many years mentoring others and supporting Alcoholics Anonymous. Her enthusiasm and energy for life brought her a lifetime of friends who will miss her dearly. She is survived by her sons Jeremy Brown of San Dimas, Christopher Brown of Covina and her sister, Becky Dixon of Waterloo, Iowa.
