“ Dale,

I'm saddened for your loss.

While words cannot replace what is lost, I hope our sympathy can provide some comfort in your time of grieving.

“ I am in Texas for Jan. & Feb. and just read Thelma's obituary in the Courier. I am so sorry to not have been home to extend my sympathy. Thelma was not only my employee but a Dear friend. We shared many memories through the years and during a phone conversation from Oklahoma. I would love to talk to you sometime Dale. How can I get your phone number. My deepest sympathy.
