“ I have so many memories of Ty. I remember when he was born and how excited I was to have a cousin. On Christmas 1941 I got to hold my very first baby. As he grew up he spent time with us and I spent time with his parents. Both of our Fathers were in the service. The times were the 2nd World War. Our families were very close during these times. I regret that we have let time seperate us. May God's grace and mercy wrap around you at this time. Dearest Ty Rest In Peace. Love Martha, John and family.
