

V. Hulse

March 24, 2007

David was born April 29, 1947, in Newton, Iowa, the son of Vaughan Dimon and Elva Eva (Anderson) Hulse. David was united in marriage to Jill Lynn Suiter on August 25, 1968, in Princeton, Iowa.

He graduated from South Tama High School in 1965, received his BBA degree from the University of Iowa in 1969, and his JD degree from Florida State University Law School, Tallahassee, in 1972. He had been Assistant State Attorney in Florida and later was an attorney for the Florida Realestate Commission. David then practiced law in Grundy Center, Iowa; moving to Cedar Falls, was Trust Officer for the former Peoples Bank and Trust company in Waterloo for several years and finally was in private practice in Cedar Falls, until retiring due to health in 2006.

David was a past member of Lions Club in Florida, Grundy Center, and Cedar Falls, and in his free time, he loved to play golf.

David is survived by his wife of Cedar Falls; two sons, V. Darren (Jacie) Hulse of Aurora, Illinois, Matthew R. (Sarah) Hulse of Cedar Falls, and daughter, Kara Lynn Hulse of Thermopolis, Wyoming; Grandson Dakota Jordan Hulse; a granddaughter Ava Christine Hulse both of Cedar Falls; two brothers, Larry D. (Kathy) Hulse of Des Moines, Iowa, and Marc D. Hulse of Marshalltown, Iowa. David died at his home on Saturday, March 24, 2007 of cancer.

He was preceded in death by his parents.
