“ Just a few days ago I thought of Verna and was thinking I should get to Cedar Falls and see her sometime! I hadn't seen her since she left her apartment near UNI. Verna and my mother, Edith (Jensen) Fisher were friends from the time Verna's father was pastor at Calvary Baptist church in Cedar Falls. Verna's sister, Ruth, married my mother's brother, Leonard Jensen. After my mother passed on, I think I visited Verna a time or two, and thought about how they must have enjoyed the Bible camps, etc. when they were young. My sympathy goes out to Verna's niece and my cousin, Janis, and any other surviving relatives of Verna. She was a quiet, reserved, and Christian woman and will be remembered for her faith and kindnesses to others.

“ What a neat lady.....I'm sorry it's been so many years since I've had contact. I'm happy to know I'll see Verna again when I get to heaven. I'm sure she's enjoying her reunion with her previously passed family and friends.
