“ Marlyn, Lisa, Butch & Nooks,

I've been trying to get this off for two day's now. I just don't even know what to say. This was such a shock. I talked to Roni just 3 or 4 weeks ago. I knew she was not feeling great, but had no idea thing's were so bad. We all go back so many years and have such great memories - Tarry and I thank God for that. Roni was a special person and this is such a loss. Each one of you have been in our thoughts and prayers and will be forever.

*Love You All So Much

“ Marlyn, Lisa, Butch and Veronica~I am so sad to know that you are grieving from Roni's passing but I am comforted to know that she is in a beautiful and peacefull place now. Some of my memories of Roni...Air Supply, the Calvin Klein jeans and red sweater she got me for Christmas one year, her fear of bridges (which we always managed to make into a comedy), and Lisa and I waiting ever so patiently for Roni and Kay to pick us up and bring us roller skating!!! (smile Lisa) which rarely happened!! (now I'm smiling) Remember to laugh and cry often over your memories with her. And Lisa...my mom said she went home and blasted Air Supply in your mothers honor (that was their promise to each other). Love to you all. Debbie Yore (Doobie)
