“ We will miss our dear friend Vi, who treated us like family members. She was a very skilled seamstress and a hard worker. She was a cheerful woman of strong Christian faith. We enjoyed hearing her tell about her family and about Fairbank, where she was raised. Her last few weeks were difficult, but we take comfort that her suffering is past and that she is now in the presence of God. Thank you, Vi, for all the kindness that you showed to us. And thanks be to God.
