“ Oh, which memory to share....Virgil was such a postivie influence in my life and my time at College Hill Lutheran. To the numerous pizza's he'd buy, to helping picking out new furniture, to sitting through many meetings and hearing his life. Virgil's postive look on life was contagious and always a joy to be around him. He lived his life for Christ and shared that light with all around him. My heart is saddened that he is gone, but rejoicing that he is with our Savior. Doris, my heart breaks for you. May God comfort and strengthen you with your loss.

“ To Doris: I'm so sorry for your loss. Virgil was a very good man. I will miss his voice signing hymns during worship when you would visit St. Paul in Remsen. God's peace be with you and your family.

“ We want to wish you peace and comfort from our Lord and Savior at this most difficult time for you and your family. Virgil was always there and always had a BIG smile and always called everyone by name. We will miss Virgil very much. He was always there whenever there was a job to do. I remember last winter he was out shoveling the snow at the church. There were plenty of young people to do it, but Virgil instead of asking just went and did it himself. Bless his heart, he had such a HUGE heart and never complained! Thanks so much for all the great years we knew Virgil. God bless you Doris. I would always say, "Doris and Virgil", I just don't think I can say just "Doris".....it will always be "Doris and Virgil!!!" Love always, Pam
