“ As a child visiting with my family, I remember the stern voice and strong personality. I remember you, Bud, and my parents chatting away after sending us kids outside. We loved playing in the yard and you always gave us a hug before leaving. Every time I see a weeping willow tree, I think of those times and now compare those trees to how strong you were. The tree branches held us swinging similar to the strength you showed in personality. You created memories. We shall miss you.

“ Your family is a large part of some of my fondest memories. After I was gone, your Dad and Mom always made the effort to come and see me when I was home. Your Mom even came along on a visit to Colorado. While we mourn her loss, she is rejoicing with Jackie and Bud. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
