

Virginia E. Nicholas

September 12, 1932 - July 4, 2014

Virginia Efthoxia Nicholas died on July 4, 2014, at NewAldaya Lifescapes in Cedar Falls.

She was a homemaker for much of her life: taking care of her children, cooking, sewing, and gardening. After all the children were in school, she worked as a teacher's aide at Cedar Heights School for many years.

Virginia was a creative person. She made beautiful paintings and drawings, designed dollhouse furniture, embroidered, and painted wall murals at Cedar Heights School, St. Paul Lutheran Church, and St. John Lutheran Church. She joined the quilting group at St. Paul and helped make many quilts. She loved nature and obtained National Wildlife Federation Backyard Habitat certification for each home in which she lived. She especially loved birds, and had a special fondness for quails. She also grew many beautiful flowers and provided butterfly habitat. In her later years, she got much joy from her grandchildren and her terrier, Cassie.

“ I'm sorry to hear about the passing of Mrs. Nicholas. I was a student at Cedar Heights while she was a teachers aid! She was always a blessing to see. She always made me smile and made sure I was having a good day! Even years later she still gave me gifts! I'm sorry I never really kept in touch with her. She was an amazing woman, and full of such spirit. She will be greatly missed in this world but a fantastic angel from above!! I send my condolences to her family and friends. Such a beautiful woman inside and out!

“ I'm sorry to hear of your loss. I enjoyed getting to know Virginia when she was teacher's aide at Cedar Heights School. (I was a substitute teacher). She had many talents that I never knew about. I know she will be missed.
