“ So sorry for the loss of your mother. Like so many others, I have fond memories of her as my kindergarten teacher. I remember the wonderful stash of 'dress up' clothes and high heels we got to play with and the many other games we played and songs we sang. She will be greatly missed, but her positive influence and the wonderful memories will remain. God bless.

“ Alan and Judy and family. Vivian was, without at doubt, one of the kindest, sweetest, most gracious women I've had the pleasure of knowing. I feel so fortunate to have not only gotten to live next door to your entire family growing up but to have benefited from her as my kindergarten teacher! I learned a lot about how to treat people from her kindness and patience. Take heart knowing that she touched many, many lives in such a positive way.

Love
Cindy
