“ 2 things to share. My husband, Guy and Willbur fished alot. One day at Wenas Lake they had been fishing all morning and not caught anything. I joined them in the afternoon. my first cast, I caught the biggest fish of the day. After that I had to drive the boat until Willbur caught a fish. Second. Wilbur asked me to help him with his voting ballot. We came to a position with candidates we did not know or could pronounce their names. I told Wilbur to just pick 1. The one he picked turned out to be a woman. Always after that he let me know which candidates were male or female..Guy wants to say how many good snowmobile rides they had. And now Wilbur,s sled has new meaning for him. Again, family you have our deepest sympathies. He may be gone but he will NEVER be forgotten. He is in our hearts forever.

“ Thoughts and prayers for his family and friends, Will and my dad are cousins and grew up together. I had the pleasure of finally getting a chance to meet him among other family members at the reunion in Cedar Falls several years back. I researched family as an adult and was able to arrange the reunion. May you rest in eternal peace Will and I pray that you can meet up with my dad Robert , his brother Edward , my grandma Laura, uncle Red , your beautiful parents. May my love and hugs reach all your family at this time of heartbreak.

“ No heart breaks alone for God is always near. When a prayer is whispered God is always there to hear. When sorrow's overwhelming, He comforts tenderly. A single tear never falls that he does not hear. (Psalms 65:2) Sorry for your loss.

“ I was the trainer for the drivers at Waterloo Warehousing when Wilbert was hired. I had to take him out of town with me for training and got to listen to how and why women were not going to be good truck drivers!! (he was an owner-operator) He bought the pizza when we stopped so I let him ramble!!! No seriously, he was great to work with and I was blessed many times with seeing his wonderful wife Hazel! Great person, great friend and a true blessing to the world! So many good laughs!!! Never met a man who like his green tea as much as I liked coffee!! You will be missed Wilbert.
