“ I just learned of Bill's passing. Though it has been more than 20 years since I last enjoyed his company, I loved Bill with all my heart and the better part of my soul. I will never forget him -- his humor, his kindness, his intellence.

It may be only coincidence, but within the past few months, I had searched the various social networking sites in hopes of coming across him and reconnecting.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss.

Jill Walling

“ It doesn't seem that you should be gone. I figured I'd run into you again like always. It's hard to believe you won't be reading quietly at a booth in one of your many favorite food joints. You were a kind man with intelligence. Everytime we chatted I would learn something new. Now I know why...your educational acheivements were outstanding! Only learning this when reading your obituary I feel like I should have taken more time to get to know you. But I do know that the music lived in you! Congratulations on completeing your collection, finally! I'm sure the tunes sound amazing from where you are...Peace
