“ How well I remember Wilma and her three daughters, Marilyn, Nancy and Betty. Betty and I were in the same class. I remember something about Wilmas one foot being funny-were some toes webbed? Long time ago. I lived a couple houses down in 1953 with my grandparents the Wilkens. I think Marilyn would remember my sister, Kay who now lives in Kansas City. I would run into Wilma once in awhile in later years at the voting booth where she volunteered. She had a wonderful husband and family and her passing brings back those great memories growing up in Cedar Falls. Mike Klein

Wilma was one of my first church friends when i moved to Cedar Falls 70 years ago and that friendship grew through the years. We coffeed together often and I had all three of her girls in my Enlgish classes at Holmes Jr. High. I won't be able to be at the service but Wilma and her family will be in my thoughts and memories. She was a great gal!
