“ Wima was always caring. She loved children even if they are a little obnoxious (like myself) She was like a grandma to many children. Her husband Jake (the Giant) was also a very caring man whom loved taking his wife to Texas each year. That was the longest 3 months a kid could go through. Missing Grandma and Grandpa Mehmen for that period of time. Wilma will always be remembered for her little white lumina. We will miss you dearly Grandma Mehmen.

“ Wilma was a woman full of grace. The light of Christ shone in all she did, and shone no matter how much she was suffering. I have been greatly blessed to know her. And I'm thankful for the assurance of eternal life in Christ, and the reunion that awaits us.
