“ I will never forget all the weekends spent at the Falls with you and the entire Family floating in the Lazy River. :) You never understood how I could want to go to a pool but not get my hair wet so you made it a point to hold my float under the bucket to be sure I got soaked. I looked forward to going to the pool to listen to your incredible stories, to listen to you talk about Football and Video Games and the most important thing we discussed was food. Recipes, Restaurants, and your Mom's amazing Curry. It was because of you I tried Sushi and now I love it..... Heaven gained an incredible Man this week but we all miss you dearly here. Instead of guarding your loved ones on this planet you are now our guardian angel up in the sky. --Vicki Gosnell

I am saddened as I read the paper tonight and can not imagine your loss. I remember your family from your time with the Bosco System. It sounds like Cael had a great older brother. You are already seeing many good memories, and I am sure that will continue. Take care. God loves you.
