“ I will always remember when Bob and Zella rescued me from where I was living alone in Rockford, Il. That was the saving of my life, and all the time I lived with you in Cedar Falls, and Waterloo. The fun things I did, including the stock car races you introduced me to. Going duck hunting with you and your friends, and so many memories, like the time I almost backed your car into the ditch. Lots of good memories. I don't have any bad ones, and I do so appreciate the relationship I had all these years with both Bob and Zella. I will miss her so much.
